

1st announcement for PEARL and PICH2Go Lecture day:

Partnering Against Pediatric Pain - Early Pain and its long-term consequences

Monday, March 26th, 2018
Time	Event	Description
8:00-9:00	Registration
9:00-9:15	Welcome University Hospital Copenhagen - Auditorium	Welcome Dr. Bonnie Stevens, PICH Dr. Mats Eriksson, PEARL Dr. Janne Weiss, University Hospital Copenhagen
9:15-10:00	Keynote Speaker 1	Partnering with parents in pain management and pain research
10:00-10:20	Short Presentation #1	Evaluation of COMFORT neo implementation as neonatal pain-scale in Denmark Janne Weis, RN, PhD and Rikke Louise Stenkjær RN, MVO
10:20-11:00	Coffee break	Poster viewing and networking
11:00-11:20	Short Presentation #2	Memories of pain and consequences for mental health Melanie Noel, Psychologist, PhD, University of Calgary
11:20-11:40	Short Presentation #3	Integrative review on the impact of strategies that have been used in educating nurses about pain assessment and/ management in children Abigal Kusi Amponsahin, RN, PhD-student, University of Turku

11:40-12:00	Short Presentation #4	OUCH – long term effects of early pain Rebecca Pillai-Ridell, Psychologist, PhD, York University
12:00-13:00	Lunch	Poster viewing and networking
13:00-14:00	Poster presentation	Presentation of four pediatric pain research projects PICH and PEARL trainees
14:00-14:20	Short Presentation #5	Just in TIME - dance and yoga for young girls with recurrent abdominal pain Margareta Möller, PT, PhD, Örebro University
14:20-14:40	Short Presentation #6	Chez NICU Home Solution: Building a platform to keep parents connected to their young babies and health care team Marsha Campbell-Yeo, RN, PhD, Dalhousie University
14:40-15:00	Break	Poster viewing and networking
15:00-15:20	Short Presentation #7	The SANNI-project – Safe Analgesia for Neonatal Intensive Care. A study on effects, safety, pharmacokinetics (PK), pharmacodynamics (PD) and pharmacogenetics (PG) Elisabeth Norman, MD, PhD, Lund University
15:20-15:50	Patient Panel	A panel with parents / patients, about challenges in including parents in pain management.
15:50-16:50	Keynote Speaker 2	Partnering with Researchers: Facing the challenges of implementing pediatric pain research into clinical practice Bonnie Stevens
16:45-17:00	Closing Remarks

Venue: Rigshospitalet, Köpenhamn / Copenhagen University Hospital

Date: Monday, March 26 2018

Fee: 200 DKK including snacks and lunch-box

Registration: send an e-mail with your name and working place to mats.h.eriksson@oru.se